In order to let our students learn more about the current situation and the future of Hong Kong Bio-Economy, we had the honour of having Prof. Lo Yuk Lam, President of Hong Kong Bio-Med Innotech Association to deliver a talk on 9th February, 2023. Prof. Lo gave a talk entitled “The future of Hong Kong Bio-Economy” in which he shared how the National Policy and the HKSAR Government Policy provide opportunities for the development of bio-economy. Prof. Lo also shared his success stories and experiences with “Earthworm Theory” that he was inspired to develop. G8 Breakthrough Camp

G8 class teachers and students taking a group photo at the campsite

Climbing the slope is not easy!

Abseiling away!

Great challenge overcome!

Form 10th-11th March 2023, our G8 students and class teachers went for an overnight camp at Sai Kung Man Yee Training Camp. Led by trainers of the Hong Kong Adventure Corps, students participated in a series of challenging activities such as abseiling, foot drilling, catapulting and night walking. They made a lot of unforgettable memories, especially after a long halt of outdoor activities under the pandemic.

Student reflections:

I thought I would be too scared to complete the task of rope net. However, I completed it quickly holding my friend's hand. Cooperation and mutual support helped me overcome the fear of height. I regained confidence in my physical strength, too. I am thankful to my class teachers and classmates who encouraged me in accomplishing those missions which I thought were impossible.

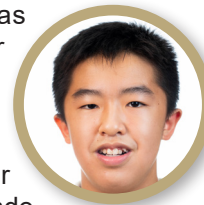

Aubrey Law (8B)

In this training camp, I have learned the importance of resilience and self-breakthrough. For example, we needed to walk out our first step in order to proceed in the rope course. I especially want to appreciate my classmates, who helped each other and put in all efforts when building the catapult.

Well Chan (8C)

During the night walk, I was assigned as the team leader of my class by the instructor. My duties were to take care of my classmates and keep counting the number of persons. These tasks made me understand the importance of leadership as well as the challenges of being a leader. For instance, unclear instructions given by the leader would cause confusion and delay. Overall speaking, I enjoyed every activity of the camp.

G12 Cheer-on Day

The Cheer-on Day for G12 graduates was a day filled with joy and celebration, as our teachers and alumni came together to cheer on and congratulate the graduating class of 2023. The day was filled with a variety of events and activities, including sharing from our respected guest speaker Mr. Shum Hung Fu, the award winner of Youth DreamMakers, an inter-class contest and a tea buffet.

We were happy to have Principal Dr. Tam to give his warmest blessings to our G12 students on their last official school day. Mr. Shum Hung Fu also shared his experiences and encouraged our G12 students to strive onwards with courage. To foster a healthy competitive spirit among students while providing a platform for showcasing their talents, we had also invited our social workers to organize an Inter-class contest for our graduating classes. We are sure the events have motivated students to excel in various fields and have given our G12 students a good memory of their high school life.

Congratulations again to all the graduates, and best of luck in all your HKDSE examinations!

Quantum Computing for Gifted Students (Phase I)

Three G11 GT gifted students participated in the Off-school Advanced Learning Programs for Gifted Students-Quantum Computing for Gifted Students (Phase I) which was held by the Gifted Education Fund, The Hong Kong University of Science and Technology (HKUST) and The Hong Kong Academy of Gifted Education. The program commenced in July 2022 and ended in October 2022. Our students spent 12 weekends learning quantum computing at HKUST, followed by a project presentation called "Quantum G.A.N." on 11th February, 2023. The content of the program was very intensive which is shown below in the learning schedule.

Our students paid a lot of effort in learning the advanced science and technology and got very fruitful experiences in the project-based learning. They also improved their interpersonal and presentation skills. Teachers and parents were invited to attend the presentation session to show their support. We are very satisfied with students' excellent performance in the presentation. What a meaningful learning activity!
